

Liz Taylor – Presenter/M.C.

It's all about experience.....

Liz Taylor is an Award winning all round Entertainer.

Over 25 years Liz has worked in every aspect of the Entertainment industry. She has honed her skills as a Singer, Impressionist, Presenter, M.C. Stage Manager, Producer, Session Vocalist and Voice Over Artist.

Presenter/M.C.

Liz's English background has given her a clear and concise speaking voice which immediately puts her at an advantage, along with her elegant presentation and grooming it was no surprise she was awarded "Television Personality of the Year" on completion the Max Rowley Media Academy 60 week course in TV & Radio Presenting. She has since gone on to host a myriad of Events and demand for her M.C. work has grown. Here are just a few key events Liz has M.C.'d

- Australia Day Concert at Speers Point 2008
- Australia Day Concert at Speers Point 2007
- The Australian Entertainment MO Awards 2002 (Co-Hosted with Peter Cousins)
- James Morrison at East's Leagues 2007
- Carols at Lake Macquarie 2006
- Model For Life (6 to 10 events per year) 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006
- Desperate Housewives Dinners & Shows (36 Events in 06 & 07)
- Many & varied Concerts, Shows and numerous Charity Events (many of which she also produced, stage managed and promoted as one of the main organisers).

Being the Entertainer, Liz believes in "doing it right" she will dress for the occasion, liaise with the client and stage managers to ensure it all runs to time and whether she is handed a few scribbled notes, typed cards or is reading from autocue you can rest assured Liz will be comfortable in all situations. Your event is in safe hands.

